

(Introduction. Please read exactly as printed. Thank you!)

Our entertainer today is no dummy. Ventriloquist David Crone, from Columbus, Ohio, has been making people laugh for over 30 years with his unique blend of comedy, ventriloquism and magic. He has performed on stages from Washington, DC to Las Vegas and for companies from AOL to Zippo.

As a corporate executive, David knows what it's like to sit through too many meetings with a bunch of dummies. So he formed his own company where he gets to pull all the strings - called "I'M NO DUMMY PRODUCTIONS."

Please put your hands together for David Crone.
